Dear [REDACTED]

It was nice to hear from you on 31 October 1963, but sorry to hear that [REDACTED] had left. I have no immediate plans to visit STL; have been there for a quick trip in October. I suspect [REDACTED] has left some special customer information. If you are anxious to dispose of it, give it to [REDACTED] who can pouch it to me here. However, if you are in no hurry, we can look it over on my next trip out.

I should also like to stop by and fill in the intervening two years with you at my next opportunity.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Albert D. Wheelon
